PURELY PERSONAL.
When you had a man who "wants it all," look out. The correct merchant figures on the expense of advertising as he does upon every other legitimate expense, and when he fears not for his prices or the quality of his wares, but places them before you in public print you can generally rely upon him as a safe one with whom to deal. Never fear of being "held up" in the house of a good advertiser.

He Liked the Teacher.
Prof. Davis of the Brigham Young Academy was the victim, Friday night, of a very severe drubbing, the effects of which have caused him considerable pain. While on his way to the residence of S. R. Thurman, to accompany Miss Thurman to the Academy ball at the Opera house, he was met by Wm. Knight, son of Jos. Knight, and pounced upon by the latter without due provocation and badly beaten.

The fess originated through Will Knight's little sister, who was attending the Academy and is a pupil of Mr. Davis. In a class Thursday, the little girl was asked a question by the teacher. She had her head turned from him while he was talking, and did not heed his remarks, so he says, he had to put her on the cheek to call her attention, and she must listen to her teacher. The girl's feelings were hurt and she commenced to cry. Mr. Davis knew the girl was not harmed, he says, and took no more thought of the matter, but when the girl went home she told her parents that she had been whipped by her teacher.

Will was placed under arrest, and $50 was left by his father for his appearance when wanted.—Provo Enquirer.

FLASHES.

Say, that was cold!
Who'd a' thought it'd be for September, too!
The Democratic primary gave Jimmie Hutchinson as much of a shakedown as the boys at the Boyack hotel today, with all kinds of good clothes for the average to-night.

A Salt Lake costumed at the Boyack hotel today, with all kinds of good clothes for the average to-night.

W. E. Lawson, of the Union Pacific, is busy explaining to the operators up and down the line the "why he isn't" shovel the snow off the platform. And he doesn't furnish a diagram with the explanation, either.

We used to farm a little, but we never saw such squashes as R. A. Sterling has at his meat market. Two of them weigh about 85 pounds apiece. Jas. Miller and Ren Hopla were the gentlemen who raised them.

Peter Hanson says he did not wreck Will Boyack's buggy while under the influence of—spirits. He was driving down the street in haste, and the other party, not appreciating this fact, did not get out of the way. This is as Mr. Hanson remembers the wreck.

There is a suspicion that the grand jury will ignore the charges of criminal libel preferred against Fred B. Smith, a former editor of THE HERALD, as it has thrown overboard several other cases of this nature. Still, it is well not to ratify before the returns are all in.

Up in Utah County there is in progress a sort of free-for-all, go-as-you-please in football scrap among the boys. The American Fork item is roasting the Springville Independent to a luscious brown and the Spanish Fork Herald is astride the neck of the Equieter editor. Let up, boys. During the campaign there will be enough of that sort of thing among the laymen without the pencil pushers lifting their fingers, and possibly their feet, into it.—Richie'd Advocate.

Head Salesman Herman, of the Consolidated Implement Co., of Salt Lake, passed here recently and left a challenge for Messrs. Neph, Johnson and J. H. Mustard to come to Springfield and play a few games of pool with mine host Harrison and him. The Harrison hostility does not appear to have been accepted, and the challenge is "died up". Last night in four games Harrison held a June these four gentlemen held a session at the same place, but Spanish Fork didn't get any honors to speak of.

Nine chances in ten a better bargain purchaser will obtain by buying from the steady advertiser than from the individual one. The reason is on account of the day not advertising.

That Embroiderment Case.
Deputy Marshal Fowler, of Provo, received word, Friday, that C. Larson and A. Anderson, wanted on charge of embezzlement, had been arrested at Richfield and on Saturday he went and got them and took them to Salt Lake. They were given an examination, Wednesday, and bound over in the sum of $500 bonds failing to procure which they went to jail.

The two men were engaged in the commission business in Salt Lake City, and after getting into Malcolm & Hughes of this city, for about $200, either assigned or disposed of their goods in some way. A warrant was sworn to in Salt Lake by Malcolm & Hughes, charging embezzlement, which led to the arrest of Larson in this city by Marshal Fowler. By request of friends and the faithful promise of Larson to appear, he was not locked up. But he did not keep his promise. He went to Salt Lake and informed his partner and the two skipped out.

Instructed for Hon. G. D. Snell.
The Republican primary, Monday evening, with but one dissenting voice, endorsed Hon. Geo. D. Snell for the State senate. The disclaimer urged the claims of Mr. Henry Gardner.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Booth, and Geo. D. Snell, Jr. elected secretary. The call was read and the work of selecting the delegation of 26 members to the County convention at Provo, Monday, commenced. The delegation is composed of the following ladies and gentlemen:

Messdames J. ne Finch, John Snell, G. D. Snell, Alice Jones; Misses Lily Morgan and Elizabeth Chambers; Messrs. H. Tilley, G. G. Hale, D. C. Markham, P. Thomas, T. D. Evans, T. H. Jarvis, G. D. Snell, Sr., J. Wilkins, D. T. Malcolm, C. W. Booth, P. Bradford, P. Valgerson, J. Thorgerson, E. Hanson, L. Jones, E. A. Neilson, J. T. Hale, W. Green, J. P. Johnson, G. W. Wilkins.

Ten alternates were chosen, as follows: Messdames H. Davis, R. D. Snell, and Annie Booth; Messrs. H. Davis, G. H. Chambers, J. Ellis, D. Morgan, R. P. Snell, A. R. M. Beck, J. M. Stull.

Mr. G. G. Hale and Mrs. Alexa Snell were chosen as members of the County Central committee.

A motion was made by Mr. J. A. Rees that the delegation be instructed to work for the nomination of Hon. Geo. D. Snell for State senator. Mr. Jos. Wilkins urged the claims of Mr. Henry Gardner. The vote gave Mr. Snell the preference.

Chairman Graham was present and offered a few remarks in regard to organization, etc., but his flowery oratory failed to warm the frigid atmosphere of the pavilion.

Democratic Primary.

The Democratic primary Saturday evening was held in the City hall instead of the pavilion on account of the bad weather. There was but a small number, comparatively, present, for the same reason.

Chairman Chisholm called the meeting to order and a motion to adjourn until better weather was discussed and finally rejected. The work of selecting a delegation of forty-three to the county convention at Payson next Saturday was then proceeded with, and the following gentlemen chosen:

W. W. Chisholm, W. B. Hughes, M. Larson, W. O. Creer, S. Gardner, J. Hutchinson, A. W. Johnson, W. Greer, D. T. Lewis, M. Mickelson, A. B. Scovill, A. Anderson; total, 14.

At this point a motion was made restricting nominations to one from each person present until all had been heard from. This was lost after considerable discussion, and the work of selecting delegates went on and these gentlemen were added to the list:

Dr. Warner, N. Hanson, E. Llewellyn, P. Neilson, J. B. Mustard, R. D. James, J. Moore, W. C. Harrison, G. C. Thomas, N. Smith, T. Jones; second total, 25.

As but three ladies were present to attend to the selection of the eighteen delegates to which the Democratic ladies of this city are entitled, it was determined to add eight more gentlemen to the list, which was done after more and varied motions to adjourn had been introduced and defeated. These gentlemen were as follows:

L. H. Olson, T. O. Creer, D. R. Evans, A. Rues, J. W. Thomas, G. Robertson, A. Prior, J. Beckstrom; third total, 33.

The ladies then chosen on the delegation were: Messdames Hutchinson, Neil Gardner, Emma Rees, Harriet Tuttle, Thomas Davis, Mary Beckstrom, Caroline Pace, Dr. Warner, and Misses Clara Jones and Lucy Chisholm; grand total, 43.

Alternates as follows were then selected: Messrs. J. R. Thomas, J. Banks, H. Tuttle, E. Houghton, R. Creer and M. Hughes; Messdames Margaret Money and D. R. Evans, and Miss Jana Rowe.

On motion it was decided to adjourn to Thursday evening, at which time to consider the question of instructing the delegation.

The adjourned meeting of the Democratic society was called to order in the pavilion by Chairman Chisholm last evening. On motion it was decided to instruct the delegation to work for a Spanish Fork candidate for either the State Senate or House of Representatives, as circumstances might dictate.

Nominations being called for the following gentlemen were named by their friends: Mayor Larson, Hon. Wm. Creer, W. O. Creer, N. Smith, J. L. Hale, S. Brockbank.

Hon. Wm. Creer made a speech seconding the nomination of Mayor Larson, and paid an eloquent tribute to that gentleman's honorable record.

On motion a vote by ballot was taken with the following result:

M. Larson.....81
Wm. Creer.....100
W. O. Creer.....12
N. Smith.....7
J. L. Hale.....6
S. Brockbank.....5
Total.....132

On motion Mr. Larson was declared the unanimous choice of the meeting. Adjourned.
